

SPECIAL GARMENT EVENT

Special selling and bringing to view of Dame Fashion's very choicest creations—an unfolding, an unpacking and the first real special sale of the Spring. Such Suits, Waists, Coats, Skirts! It will be easy to tell where the fashion center of this vicinity is. Our efforts and thoughts have been to make it the leading style event of the present year.

Handsomely tailored Suits, Silk Shirt Waist Suits and Walking Skirts of the latest materials—creations that show the influence of Parisian models—in fact every garment we exhibit possesses an individual style that brings to mind the high priced tailor.

We must mention our new Silk Coats—dainty, distinctive affairs—neat, dressy and comfortable. You should let us show you these. And such an assemblage of Waists—varied, rich and beautiful—some of embroidered linen, lawns, lace and hamburg daintily trimmed—the comfortable and durable Japanese wash silks and many other kinds.

Remember this is the first real special sale of the Spring. COME.

THOUGHTS ON COURTSHIP.

Before you quarrel always stop to consider whether you can afford it.

Promise as much as you can perform and as much more as she would like you to.

Don't forget that while you are making love to a face you will live with a mind.

Love is a disease. See to it that you have an incurable case.—Twentieth Century Home.

TOWN TOPICS.

If cleanliness is next to godliness, then it is best not to examine in what immediate neighborhood Baltimore happens to be just now.—Baltimore American.

Of course if you prefer it that way you can fry or scramble Kansas City drinking water instead of boiling it. Making it into pies, however, is not advisable, as mud pies are even less digestible than other kinds.—Kansas City Journal.

CHADWICK CASE, ECHOES.

It is a satisfaction that the American courts have been equal to the Mrs. Chadwick case. No one in court was hypnotized. The jury was firm as a rock.—Springfield Republican.

If any poor people have got the notion since Mrs. Chadwick's financial feats that banks are in the habit of lending money on poor security let them try to borrow some.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Dig Gum Trees.

Two gum trees which tower over 100 feet above a little church in Guatemala are sixty feet in circumference, and their strong roots have pushed the foundation of the church out of place.

Shoes! Shoes!

We offer you today Burt & Packard's "Korrek Shape" Shoes for Men. We have these Shoes in all the popular lasts and shades such as browns, tans, chocolate and black, and they come in both low and high cuts in Vici Kid, Box Calf, Velour Calf and Patents. We make a specialty of Patent Leather Shoes. These are made from the donkey or burro hide, and are called "Burro-jap." The donkey or burro is the most reliable and persistent of domestic animals, with a capacity for hard work far beyond his weight, and is particularly noted for his sure-footedness. His hide is consistent with his nature. "Burro-jap" is the most flexible, tough and serviceable patent leather known to the shoe-maker, and it can be had only in "Korrek Shape" Shoes. We warrant every pair. We are sole agents for Barre. Ask for the "Burro-jap." Prices, $3.50 to $4.00.
